

Nonprofit Organizations

Klein Hornig lawyers understand the nuanced regulatory, tax, and business issues at the crossroads of nonprofit, affordable housing, and community development law. We recognize the unique challenges nonprofit organizations encounter and help them operate efficiently, effectively, and creatively to achieve their nonprofit mission. In collaboration with our clients, we support projects that benefit individuals and community groups and enrich communities for decades to come.

Overview

Klein Hornig lawyers deliver guidance at all stages of the organizational life cycle of a nonprofit and are there to provide counsel for day-to-day operational challenges. Our team advocates for and guides nonprofits on how to address an array of issues specific to their tax-exempt status and mission.

While addressing current challenges we also help identify and prepare clients for potential issues on the horizon.

Our entire team is eternally grateful to Klein Hornig for tirelessly supporting us since the inception of our 501(c)(3) nonprofit, Power Forward, Inc.! Their legal guidance, unending support and genuine kindness have allowed us to grow and help hundreds of people find recovery from substance use disorder through education, empowerment and innovation.
