Overview

I chose Klein Hornig solely because of their mission. After working in the litigation field for several years, I wanted to use my time and skills in a way that provided value to communities. Klein Hornig proved to be that firm for me. I'm proud of the work that we do to help create affordable housing for those who need it most.

Madelyn Peña is a paralegal at Klein Hornig who works primarily with equity investors during all stages of a transaction. She has extensive experience drafting equity documents, due diligence review, title and survey review as well as all post-closing procedures.
